

Alyce Brodoff

Alyce Brodoff has worked behind the scenes with VictimsFirst since its inception in 2012 amid the aftermath of the Aurora theater mass shooting. She helped create the Love to Aurora Facebook campaign and helped promote the NoNotoriety cause. Helping victims has been central in her life the past 11 ½ years and counting. A lifelong volunteer, Alyce has sat on numerous Boards of Directors, Commissions and Committees dedicated to human rights, the health and welfare of children/teens/adults/seniors and community building. A retired teacher who coached many amateur and professional singers/public speakers in her 40 year career, she lives in the San Francisco Bay Area. Alyce grew up in Denver, Colorado.
